LUKE 6:41

Blindsided

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

There are days when the darker side of who we are rises up and slaps us in the face. One evening, I decided to go to see a film. I bought a ticket, made my way into the theater, and found a seat that would give me an unobstructed view of the screen, one that had patrons on either side of the open seat in front of me. Fairly sure that no one would sit in front of me, I felt good about my maneuver. A few minutes before the film began, a group of four walked down the aisle, looking for a string of open seats in the crowded theater. One of them stopped at my row and asked if I would move down a seat. Immediately, I realized my predicament. If I moved, I'd be behind someone tall, with my view of the screen blocked.

I'd spend the film gazing through someone's head. I said no. The woman who had asked was taken aback, said so, and then moved on. Just as quickly, I found myself shocked by my own selfishness. Where had that come from? Was I really not who I thought I was? I discovered that there are hidden pieces of who we are that seldom come to light, and when they do, we cringe. If we are fortunate, the Lenten journey we begin on Ash Wednesday might reveal to us what it is that lives in our hearts. ●

Reflect

What can I do for Lent that may help me see myself more clearly?

37 Years of Service to Holy Cross
1988—2025

TRANSFIGURED: Patricia Sandoval's Escape from Drugs, Homelessness, and the Back Doors of Planned Parenthood by Christine Watkins (Author), Patricia Sandoval (Author), Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC (Foreword)

Why would Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC, say that the world, especially Catholics, need to read this story of redemption?

Why would he claim that Transfigured is one of the most powerful conversion stories ever written?

Because Patricia Sandoval's life story is an unusually gripping, hard-to-put-down ride along a journey that leads to an extraordinary triumph of God's mercy—the mercy that waits patiently for all of us.

Patricia came from a broken home, good and bad boyfriends, three abortions, a job at Planned Parenthood (where she was told never to reveal what she saw), followed by methamphetamine addiction and homelessness. The way that Jesus came to her in the streets will leave you breathless, as will the heights to which God has since carried her.

If you know of someone who believes they cannot be forgiven or return to Church, this is the book to give them.

PRO-LIFE NEWS

SHOULD WE BE WORRIED?

For years, there have been clear signals that euthanasia providers in Canada may be breaking the law and getting away with it. That is the finding of the officials who are responsible for monitoring euthanasia deaths to ensure compliance in the province of Ontario. Newly uncovered reports reveal that these authorities have thus far counted over 400 apparent violations—and have kept this information from the public and not pursued a single criminal charge, even against repeat violators and "blatant" offenders.

Why is this allowed to happen?

Lenten Initiative

Pastoral Council has received a request from a parishioner to help a young man in our community. This young man (we will call him "Abraham") has immigrated to Canada from Nigeria and has settled in Regina. The reason he immigrated was that the government in Nigeria changed and surviving there had increasingly become an economical hardship. He wants to create a better life here for his family. He is married with three children and his family remains behind until he is able to establish himself here. They own a small store that his wife runs with the help of a neighbourhood boy. However, some months the sparse income from this store does not cover the familial expenses. Therefore, Abraham does his best to send money home to them. He says that $20 CDN goes a long way in Nigeria.

Abraham attends the University of Regina and is working hard to obtain his Liberal Arts degree. He hopes to convocate in April. He arrived here in April 2023 and was able to find a job. However, since then the Canadian government has changed its rules for foreign students. They no longer allow students to work more than 24 hours per week resulting in a shortage in income. After rent, utilities and groceries are paid, there is not much left to send home to his family.

This is where Holy Cross Parish comes in. Abraham has been attending this church for the past couple of years. He was born and raised in a Roman Catholic home in Nigeria and finding a church in Regina was important to him. He can walk to Church during the summer but attendance during our cold winters can be sporadic unless he can get a ride. He believes that God has blessed him throughout his life and he likes to attend Church to praise God and thank Him for blessings received.

Pastoral Council discussed the above-mentioned request and came up with a plan of action. We would like to help Abraham out by doing the following:

- 1) There is not normally a collection at Mass on Ash Wednesday. However, the Church does allow for a special collection if it falls within the parameters of our Lenten almsgiving. Fr. Carlos has approved this special collection and all proceeds will go to Abraham.
- 2) The glass jars that Social Action has placed at both doors – any loose change collected in those jars during Lent will go to Abraham.
- 3) Social Action will match any funds donated to this cause to a maximum of $200.

The Knights of Columbus have stepped forward to help us in this initiative. They will be having a food drive in the future and will donate some of the collections to Abraham. Below are some of the foods that he is familiar with:

Rice

Beef/Chicken

Carrots

Bread

Muffins

He has no food allergies and is appreciative of anything you can contribute.

I also received an enquiry about tax receipts. Unfortunately, we will be unable to issue tax receipts because Abraham is not a registered charity with CRA. You will be giving from the kindness of your heart.

To donate directly to this initiative:

Cash—Put in an envelope with Abraham written on it.

Cheque—made out to Holy Cross Parish with Abraham written in the memo part.

E-Transfer—to bookkeeper.holycross@sasktel.net with Abraham written in comment section.

Thank you for your time and, if you can contribute to this initiative, please do so. If this is not your cup of tea or you have other plans for your Lenten almsgiving, that is okay, too.

May God bless you during Lent, a time of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

It is not enough to say we are Christians. We must live the faith, not only with our words, but with our actions.

Are you using your gifts in the way God intended? Have you asked God how He would like you to use them? Do you compare yourself to others and complain about what you don't have instead of being thankful for what you do have? God gives each of us unique gifts and a unique plan. Listen to how God is calling you to use your gifts to bear good fruit for the glory of His name.
