One for All and All for One

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

One day, I asked the eighth-graders I was teaching to imagine themselves on a fantasy journey. They had to pretend they were flying across the ocean in a small airplane when suddenly the plane has engine trouble. The pilot manages to land on a sandy island beach. Everyone survives, but a few passengers are injured.

The captain divides the passengers into groups, each with a specific task. One group is responsible for finding food; another for water; another to explore and map the island; another to care for the injured. After explaining the scenario, I divided the eighth-graders into groups of four or five to complete the same "pretend" tasks—to create a set of rules by which to live until they were all rescued. The rules each group created were much the same: share everything, no hoarding, no fighting, obey the captain, no stealing, those who do not work do not eat. In effect, these eighth-graders created their own "commandments," enabling the community to survive in its own kind of desert, likely in the same way the Ten Commandments helped the Israelites.

The teachings of Jesus do not abrogate the original Ten Commandments. They continue to hold a great deal of wisdom for surviving as a community. Jesus taught us to focus on how our behavior shapes the sort of individuals we become and, ultimately, what sort of community we form. What flows from one's heart, Jesus taught, reveals who we are both alone and in community. ●

Reflect

What would you include in a set of rules for yourself and your family?

SOCIAL JUSTICE REPORT Change collected

Thank You for your contributions. $117.75 was raised. This money will be turned over to the Marian Centre, as the majority of parishioners requested. The jars are still out. Let us start again. Where are we going?...HIGHER!

There's nothing normal about half of Canadians living paycheque to paycheque.

But this is not a reality that we have to accept. People in Canada need policies that offer immediate relief, not distant promises.

That's why Food Banks Canada is calling for a Groceries and Essentials Benefit to provide Canadians the support they need today, not tomorrow. This is the best way to ensure that every Canadian can afford their daily cost of living.

Join us and tell your local representatives that hunger doesn't wait, so we can't either. To learn more about the Groceries and Essential Benefit, poverty in Saskatchewan and ways you can help, go to https://foodbankscanada.ca. Click on Poverty Report Card.

PRO-LIFE NEWS

MAiD in Canada is the world's fastest growing assisted dying program.

MAiD is now tied with cerebrovascular diseases as the 5th leading cause of death in Canada. Only deaths from cancer, heart disease, and accidents exceed the number of deaths from MAiD.
